Social 10.1/10.2	Grosky	Present/Future	Students are finishing up the third unit, Economic Globalization, and then we will be heading into our final unit for the semester. Also, we have the opportunity to participate in a tour of Blue Quills Residential School on Friday. June 14. This will allow students to experience that setting, as the tour is being led by an Indigenous elder, who is also a Residential School survivor. Thank-you to Mrs. Cook for finding us the resource to go, as well as Mr. Martin & Mrs. LaHaye for chaperoning.

ELA 8	Grosky	All	Students are finishing up their collaborative novel study with an open book exam after the long weekend. Once that is complete the start on their corresponding group projects, which includes creating a new cover for their book, rewriting the synopsis, as well as creating a book trailer. Afterwards, we will be exploring The Wonderful Wizard of Oz , as our final unit. Part A of the PAT was on May 13. Students are continuing their independent work on their novel of choice. Comprehension exams are scheduled for the last week of May. Once they are complete, they will also begin their collaborative group projects to further demonstrate their learning. They are required to create and present a children's picture book that follows the story of the novel, as well as contains all important elements. In preparation for Part B of their PAT, we will continue to review the reading comprehension, as well as exam taking strategies, that we have used throughout the course.
			The Plant Fundraiser has now been completed. Students picked up their plants to hand out to those who ordered from them. The plants this year will gorgeous and a special thank goes out to Spade to Spoon Greenhouse. The student council is working hard to move forward on the outside basketball set up. Investing in items such as the outdoor basketball play areas offer a fun and accessible way for students to engage in exercise, promoting physical health and well-being among the student body as well as promotin a sense of belonging and community within the school culture. We are super proud of our students and their
